

Dear FCC

RM-10868 is a bad proposal, this would keep new hams out cause lost of interest by current hams and maintain the older hams in the service who will eventually die off leaving the radio spectrum dead as no one would want to use it. Thus no or few operators in the event of an emergency.

Sincerely

Mark Hutchens